Chairman

STATINTL

Jim:

Thank you very much for your note of 14 September and for the most attractive book of pictures on our Building. I am certainly most happy to have a copy and I am sure the Director is also.

May I suggest to you and Jack Coffey that the other copies be presented as follows, and in each case, under circumstances which will get the Agency some "Brownie points."

1. The National Fine Arts Commission
2. The National Capital Planning Commission
3. General Services Administration
4. Harrison & Abramovitz
5. The Agency Library
6. The Office of The Assistant to the Director
(Goodwin/Thuermer)
7. The Agency Archives
(Historical Staff)
